

I firmly believe that diversity in media broadcasting is a good thing for democracy, community, and competition. I strongly urge you not to relax any of the regulations regarding broadcast ownership.